Vision

Wake Chapel Church's hallmark is advocacy for health care, education, and employment. Our foundation is deeply rooted in our core values based on:

- Leading people to Jesus Christ whereby He is glorified
- Ministering to the total needs of men, women and families of all cultures
- Providing opportunities for empowerment and growth (spiritually, health-wise and economically)
- Developing a welcoming environment that encourages active participation by all disciples
- Supporting community members as we all work to surpass barriers and limitations

Wake Chapel Church with the guidance of the Holy Spirit seeks to fulfill the Ministry of Jesus Christ through obedience to His commandments, charitable services to the needy, responsible stewardship, Christian education, and the salvation of souls, faith and prayer.

The Wake Chapel Church Ministry is.....

MISSION STATEMENTS

Pastoral Support

Congregation Council

Wake Chapel Church operates under a Jethro Model of Management. To accomplish this, the Church has established the Congregation Council as the governing body. The Wake Chapel Church Congregation Council sets policies, monitors financial performance and provides managerial support to the Senior Pastor. The Congregation Council includes representation from the Deacons, Ministers, Trustees and Church Executive Team.

Ministerial Staff

minsters@wakechapel.org

Stewart Parker

The Ministers serve an extension of the Pastoral Ministry by helping the Senior Pastor carry out his God-given vision. They remain faithful in God's service by assisting the Senior Pastor at worship services, facilitate Baptismal services and Holy Communion and all other duties assigned by the Senior Pastor. If you believe that you are being called by God to serve as a minister, please email ministers@wakechapel.org. Vernestine Kent serves as the Female Ministers Mentor.

Support areas include:

Armor Bearer/Adjutant & Female Ministers Mentor

armorbearer@wakechapel.org

Vernestine Kent

The Armor Bearers of Wake Chapel Church have dedicated their lives to Christ and are willing to spiritually cover in prayer, encourage, assist and protect the man or woman of God.

Ministers' Spouses

ministerspouse@wakechapel.org

Karen Lassiter

The Ministers' Spouses remain faithful in God's service by supporting the Senior Pastor and Ministers in the preparation and serving of Holy Communion, preparing candidates for baptismal services, and visiting the sick and bereaved. They serve the disciples of WCC through prayer and encouragement.

Deacons

deacons@wakechapel.org

Leon Harris

The appointed role of Deacon is designed to address the spiritual and physical needs of church disciples and the community. Deacons are to assist the Senior Pastor in the daily care of the church body and ministering to church disciples.

Deacons' Wives

Nursing Home Visitations

nursinghome@wakechapel.org

Lamont Blackmon

Wake Chapel Church nursing home ministry serve the purpose and mission to go out and visit the sick and shut in our surrounding nursing home community. To encourage, lift and bring comfort and a word of hope with assurances of God every present Grace to each resident and share this message with a smile and a listening ear with all residents residing in our community nursing homes. We have design our ministry to fit the uniqueness that each nursing home present. Realizing that we live in a diverse and cultural rich community here in triangle area, and that each nursing facility has its own personality and charm. We do this by providing a basic bible study and or church services that focus on, first and foremost lending and sharing an encouraging word and scripture to aid in giving hope, faith, love and showing compassion with a listening ear to all who seek it.

Along with music and songs that up lifts the spirit and as well as the heart of each nursing home resident. Our Scripture reference is Psalm 37:25 "I have been young and now I am old; yet have I not seem the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. This scripture simply means that God watched over us when we were in our youthful days, and he will certainly preserve us in our latter days and years. God keeps his promises.

Security

security@wakechapel.org

Dewel Jones

Although we don't like to think violent acts occur within the church walls, it is something for which we are obligated to prepare for. There are several reasons why we must pray, prepare, and prevent. The church should be a place of sanctity and safety, and as such, we have invested in surveillance technology and training for team members. The Wake Chapel Church Security Department has an obligation to church members, parishioners, and every visitor who steps inside our doors to provide a safe environment for worship. They provide the church with the necessary skills to provide protection for all worshippers and are well prepared, well trained, strategically deployed with a willingness to serve our Savior.

MISSION STATEMENTS

Trustees

trustee@wakechapel.org

Leonard King

The appointed role of Trustee is to supervise and maintain all property belonging to the congregation, thereby enabling all the ministries, departments, and other entities to operate effectively in a safe and inviting environment. Additionally, the Trustee Department plays a key role in accounting for the finances that are collected at all WCC events. Trustees are entrusted to the proper upkeep of God's house as a way to honor God and to facilitate the holistic ministry. The physical and fiscal assets of the congregation reflect God's blessings and the Senior Pastor's inspired vision for the promotion of the Kingdom of God. Good stewardship, common sense, and prudence dictate that the church, facilities, property, equipment, furnishings, and other physical property be well maintained. We honor God when we care for what has been entrusted to us.
